

Telecom Focus Session at GGF10
Humboldt University, Berlin, Germany
March 9, 2004

Agenda

Time	Topic	Recommended Panelists/Speakers
8:00-8:45	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Welcome and Intro ▪ Purpose of Meeting ▪ Grid Market Awareness Committee (GMAC) efforts ▪ Telecom/Network Programs at GGF 	Charlie Catlett (GGF), GMAC, Cohen, Walker (Host Committee), Travostino, deLaat (GGF Working and Research Groups)
8:45-9:45	"How scientific grids are affecting research/scientific networks" <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Panel ▪ Open Discussion 	deLaat on behalf of Starlight, Netherlight; Prybliski (NGN at Poznan) Canarie, Dante, Ullmann (DFN), Reijs (Heanet) Schauerhammer (DFN)
9:45-10:45	"How telecoms are thinking of providing grid services to these networks and commercial grid users" <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Panel ▪ Open Discussion 	Mullan (FT), Bel (BT), Foisel (T-Systems), Hiltunen (AT&T), Chichi (Telecom Italia), Level3
10:45-11:15	Break (food and beverage to hold you over!)
11:15-12:15	"How vendors of network equipment and applications that may be provided over networks are preparing for greater grid traffic on networks." <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Panel ▪ Open Discussion 	Cisco, Juniper, Spanish Network, Alcatel, Foundry, T-Systems, Nortel
12:15-1:30	a) How are telecom networks using grids to manage and monitor their operations?" b) What new software may be required to support the grid applications being used over networks (above Layer 1)? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Panel ▪ Open Discussion 	Foisel(T-Systems), Red Espana, Poznan, Dante, deLaat, Fogel (Intel), Haley (IBM)
1:45-2:00	Wrap up and Close + Next Steps	Bob Cohen

Hosted by the Global Grid Forum (GGF): Charlie Catlett, Chair, Steve Crumb, Executive Director, Clare Spartz, Director of Marketing and Membership

Host Committee: Bob Cohen, Economic Strategy Institute, Elias Kourpas, IBM, Rick Schlichting, AT&T, Franco Travostino, Nortel Networks, Martin Walker, Hewlett Packard

Master of Ceremonies: Bob Cohen, Economic Strategy Institute